Communication Program

I am a student from Taiwan, I joined the University Pathway Program in ILSC Toronto campus. In first three months, I had quite a few questions and curiosities about some courses. However, the school counsellor Ms. Catherine Zhang always willing to listening my English and helped me a lot. Thankfully, they have patience and great efficient to deal with student's problems; therefore, I could concentrate on my program without interference. Likewise, not only study in school, also can meet many friends from different countries which have many fascinating extracurricular activities and created my colorful Toronto life in ILSC.

In ILSC, there have great quality of learning equipment, environment and teachers; and it's also amazing that every teachers has different styles of teaching method, funny, interesting and useful. Because all of them, I felt fulfillment and satisfactory. I am fortunate that choosing ILSC to improve my English skills, moreover, I am grateful that I met numerous awesome
