English Language Skills

Looking to improve your English language skills? George Brown partners with several English language schools, including ILSC and SGIC. For the most up-to-date list of English language pathway partners, visit: georgebrown.ca/international/future-students/admission-requirements.

The new George Brown–ILAC Languages Canada Joint Pathway Program (R108) is a collaborative program delivered by ILAC, one of Canada's leading English language schools, and George Brown Polytechnic. Students build their proficiency at ILAC before transitioning into our career-focused programs under a streamlined study permit framework. Designed to reduce complexity and support student success, this joint pathway provides a clear route from language preparation to college studies, with the confidence of two trusted Canadian education partners every step of the way.
